

What About ... Pro-Choice?

By DR. DAVID A. DEWITT

Linus could have added, “Can I choose to pray to Jesus Christ in school?” “Can I choose creation over evolution at the university?” “Can I choose to object publicly to practicing homosexuality?” “Can I choose to proclaim that Jesus Christ is the only way to God?” “Can I choose to believe in absolute truth?” “Can I choose to proclaim the Bible is the inerrant Word of God?”

And Lucy could have added, “No that’s offensive, but you can choose to read the Koran publicly, you can choose to promote homosexual marriage, you can choose to cohabit before marriage, and you can choose to proclaim Buddhism, Islam, or atheism! In short, you can’t choose to support biblical beliefs or morals, but you can choose to support morals and beliefs that contradict the Bible.”

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires, and will turn away their ears from the truth and will turn aside to myths (2 Timothy 4:3-4).
