

e-concepts

A Weekly Publication of Relational Concepts Inc.

Why Did God Use Violence?

By Dr. David DeWitt

Answer: God used violence because of sin. Every act of violence by God was a judgment on the sin of men or angels (Jude 5-7). I suspect the reason many do not like the idea of violence from God is they do not like the idea of God judging sin. God has in the past, and will in the future, use physical force to destroy sin and those who commit it.

Since God is holy, just, true, and does not change, He must judge sin with justice (Exodus 21:24; Leviticus 24:20; Deuteronomy 19:21). But God did not do what the Canaanites and the Philistines did. God used physical force to destroy evil people. The inhabitants of Canaan used violence to torture people. For example, when Saul was mortally wounded in battle, he asked his armor bearer to kill him because he was fearful of being tortured by the Philistines (1 Samuel 31:4), as Samson was when they put out his eyes (Judges 16).

God is the giver of life. All life belongs to Him and He does not owe anyone an explanation for taking what He has given. Life belongs to God. He can do what He wants with it (Genesis 2:7).

- For example, why do we die?

Answer: Because that is what God told Adam and Eve would happen if they sinned. Over 178,000 people in the world die every day because Adam and Eve sinned.

- Why did God bring about the violent destruction of all but eight people, at the time of Noah's Flood?

Answer: Because the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually (Genesis 6:5).

- Why did God wipe out Sodom and Gomorrah?

Answer: Because their sin is exceedingly grave (Genesis 18:20; Jude 7). Actually, God told Abraham He would spare the whole city if there were 10 righteous men (Genesis 18:32).

- Why is God more violent in judging sin in the Old Testament than He is in the New Testament?

Answer: He isn't. Do not think the violent judgment of God is confined to the Old Testament. Jesus said of Jewish unbelievers, The sons of the kingdom will be cast out into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth (Matthew 8:12).

Remember, during this church/grace age God has postponed judgement for the afterlife and the next age. Describing Jesus at His Second Coming, the Apostle John wrote, From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty... (Revelation 19:15-18).

Not one time did Jesus ever criticize, modify, or amend God's use of violence in the Old Testament.